ABOUT COACH BRODY CONKLYN

My name is Brodie Conklyn I am a student at Concordia University of Wisconsin studying Psychology with a minor in Adaptive Education. Besides playing and coaching volleyball, I love to go on hikes and spend time outside.

COACHING PHILOSOPHY

My main goal for my athletes is for them to improve in many aspects. I want them all to improve in volleyball, both the mental and physical side. I also want them to approve off the court as well. I strive to teach all my athletes lessons that they can use on and off the court.

PLAYING EXPERIENCE

- I went to West Allis Central and was a 4 year varsity player, played for a variety of clubs during high school.
- I also play at Concordia University of Wisconsin

COACHING HISTORY

- I coached at Frank Lloyd Wright Intermediate for 3 years
- Martin Luther JVI team for 1 year
- I am currently coaching at Martin Luther for their varsity team
